THE PREFACE.

THE Station of Graduates among themselves according to our Statutes, that of Bachelors of Divinity, Law, and Medicine, in their respective Faculties, depends upon their Presentation; and so likewise does that of Doctors, except Grand-Compounders, who have Precedence of all others of the same Year and Faculty. All Doctors of Divinity take Place of Doctors of Law and Medicine; but those of Law and Medicine take Place of each other according to the Time and Order of their Admission and Inception in the Act. The true Station of Masters of Arts among themselves is according as they are ranked by the Proctors at Act; whose Power is nevertheless limited by certain Restrictions, (to be found in our public Statutes;) one of which is, that Grand-Compounders be put first of the Year. Bachelors of Law in the Course of Preaching come after Masters of Arts that are two Years their Juniors; reckoning from the Admission of the former and Inception of the latter.

An Asterisk denotes a Grand-Compounder for that degree to which it is affixed.

Few Cambridge Men are to be found in this Catalogue, except some Persons of Quality, and such others as resided with us for some time; because by their Incorporation here they acquire no new Right or Privilege in respect of their Qualifications and Station in the Kingdom: but it being otherwise with the Members of all foreign Universities, Care has been taken that none of them be omitted.

It is observable, that not only the nearest Relations, but sometimes the same persons do write their Names differently for different Degrees: therefore whatever Error or Uncertainty may arise upon such Account, it must not be imputed to the Publisher hereof; and the same may be said of any mistake that relates to the Spelling of such Surnames as depend upon other authority than that of the Subscription-Books, where we have them under the Hands of the Proceeders themselves.

Where several Men bear the same Surname, the Catalogue runs double, viz. both upon that and the Christian Name; and where both Names are exactly the same, such Persons are placed in the Order in which they proceeded.

To the above Particulars, which are extracted from the Preface of the first Edition, the Editor of the present Edition of the Catalogue has only to add, that the former Catalogues and Appendixes, with the succeeding years, to October 10, 1814, are now comprised in one Alphabet, for the greater convenience of those who have occasion to examine it.
